

my precious homework
after being broken

my homework
before being broken

Dear M. Fullerman

you asked me to create a doll for halloween. I'm writing this apology letter because I don't have my homework but ...

I did do it! Let me explain ... It's a very incredible story! It was on Halloween night ...
I prepared my school bag for school when suddenly,
my homework came to life!

she went to my attic, she bumped her head ... now she is broken ...

I don't want to detention please ...
I promise i will so in.

Tom Gates

Sorry again

when my homework came
to life

I'm really sorry ...
