

HALLOWEEN

Dear Mr Fullerman,

You asked me to do my essay about my favorite band.

I am writing this apology letter because I can't hand in my homework to you. I did do my essay, really!

Let me explain... It is an incredible story!

I went to a special Halloween concert of my favorite band on October 31st. I was very excited because I hid my bag there was my essay and because I wanted my favorite band to read it and to tell me what they thought about it.

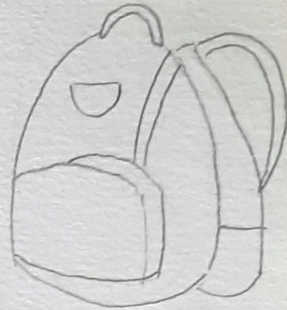

I was having fun when suddenly, a vicious ghost appeared in the crowd and stole my bag and my homework! I tried catch it but unfortunately, it was too late.

Finally, despite this incident, I loved this magical concert! it was my dream. My dream came true.

I know, I will have to do my essay again. I am so SORRY. I don't want to go in detention please, I promise, I will be attentive and a good pupil in class.

SORRY again
